

Counsel
New York City
cmilo@goldsteinhall.com

Charles Milo

Charles Milo focuses his practice in the areas of trusts and estates and real estate. In addition to estate planning, Charles has extensive experience in estate administration, having worked with the attorneys for the Public Administrator for 25 years. He has been involved in probate proceedings, administration proceedings, discovery proceeding, accounting proceedings, kinship hearings, the preparation of estate tax returns, estate tax audits, the sale of real estate, and the first public auction of a winning New York lottery ticket on behalf of an estate.

Bar Admissions

The State of New York

Education

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, J.D.

Expertise

Wills, Estates and Trusts

Community Support

Charles has been a member of a volunteer ambulance service for more than 20 years.