

Paralegal

New York City

eheydemann@goldsteinhall.com

646.768.4108

Elissa Heydemann

Elissa Heydemann is a paralegal at Goldstein Hall, where she is responsible for aiding the litigation team.

Before joining Goldstein Hall, Elissa interned for the Volunteers Lawyer Project in Syracuse, New York, where she worked directly for the Eviction Defense program. During her time there, she prepared clients in court for landlord/tenant proceedings, as well as reviewing code violations and housing property certificates.

Education

Syracuse University, B.A., Policy Studies and Women Gender Studies