Courtlandt Manor

Courtlandt Manor is a new construction 9% Low Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) development project located in the Bronx, New York. This project consists of twenty-three (23) units of affordable housing and community facility space. The development was made possible through the sale of the property by the City of New York to a collaborative joint venture between Infinite Horizons, LLC, and Community League of the Heights, Inc.

The construction financing was provided by U.S. Bank, New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development, National Equity Fund, and permanent financing through Community Preservation Corporation.
