Anna Silverman

Anna Silverman is a Paralegal at Goldstein Hall, where she is responsible for assisting the attorney staff on complex closings requiring coordination with government agencies, private lenders, and equity investors.

Prior to joining Goldstein Hall, Anna worked as a paralegal at Gibney, Anthony & Flaherty, LLP, where she supported their business immigration practice, specializing in nonimmigrant matters. She also worked at Gay Men's Health Crisis (GMHC) as an intern in their Supportive Housing and Financial Management department where she helped clients access stable housing placements across the city.

Anna graduated from Barnard College with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and a minor in Science and Public Policy in 2024.
