Ashley Luo

Ashley Luo is a Paralegal at Goldstein Hall, where she is responsible for assisting the attorney staff on complex closings requiring coordination with government agencies, private lenders, and equity investors.

Prior to joining Goldstein Hall, Ashley worked at a boutique law firm in New York City where she supported the lead attorney in litigation matters. Ashley also worked as a College & Career Lab Advisor and Orientation Leader at New York University, where she mentored students, developed programming, and supported transitional experiences for incoming undergraduates. She also held roles with the NYC Administration for Children's Services and the Urban Justice Center, where she engaged in community partnerships, policy development, and advocacy efforts to support children, families, and small business owners across New York City.

Ashley graduated from New York University with a Bachelor of Arts in Individualized Studies with a Concentration in Censorship and Self-silencing on the Individual and Collective Body and a minor in Child and Adolescent Mental Health Studies.
