

Isabella Marino

Isabella Marino is a Paralegal at Goldstein Hall, where she is responsible for aiding the transactional team on a variety of tasks.

Prior to joining Goldstein Hall, Isabella worked at a landlord-tenant law firm in New York City as the lead of the nonpayment department, where she assisted the head attorneys and their clients with commencing legal proceedings and filing these matters with the courts. In her free time, she is an English tutor for K-12 students throughout the United States, with a focus on essay writing support and reading comprehension.

Isabella received her Bachelor of Arts from Fordham University as a Pre-Law student with a major in English and minors in Philosophy and Peace and Justice Studies.

Paralegal

New York City

isabella.marino@goldsteinhall.com

646.768.4112

Education

Fordham University, B.A., English and minors in Philosophy and Peace and Justice Studies, 2025